Report on
INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON ADVANCED MATERIALS
ICAM-2024

An international conference on 'Advanced Materials' was organized by the Department of Physics & Research Centre on the 25th of March, 2024 for academicians and researchers of the higher education fraternity. Researchers submitted their original and unpublished papers concerning the broad theme of the conference addressing their papers to specific sub-themes. Approximately 45 papers were submitted and presented in this conference.

The conference commenced at 09:30 a.m. with Tamil Thai Vazhthu by the department choir followed by a welcoming address by the head of the department Dr. S. Antony Dominic Christopher. The inaugural session started with lighting of the lamp by all the delegates in the dais and two student representatives. The felicitation ceremony then ensued by inaugural address given by Dr. M. Amalanathan, the Principal of NACCAS and concluded with the formal release of the conference proceedings by the eminent academicians who had graced the occasion.

The first technical session started by the introduction of the speaker Dr. I. John Berlin, Assistant Professor of Physics, Mar Thoma College, Thiruvalla. He was introduced by Dr. P.M. Shajin Shinu, Assistant Professor of Physics, NACCAS. The session was about 'Spintronics' which is considered as one of the most important emerging research areas with an immense potential to provide high speed, low power and high density logic and memory electronic devices.

Post a brief tea break, the next speaker Dr. P. Thillai Arasu, Professor in Wollega University, Ethiopia was introduced by Dr. S.S Bidhu, Assistant Professor of Physics, NACCAS. He handled the session online through Google Meet platform. His talk on 'Composite Materials' exceeded the expectations of all the participants and it gave a new insight about composite materials to them.

This was followed by the paper presentations that were conducted in two parallel tracks. The first track on oral presentations was chaired by the invited speakers Dr. I. John Berlin and Dr. P. Sumithraj Premkumar. Simultaneously, poster presentations were judged by Dr. Priya Rajini and Dr. Mary Sheeba, Assistant Professors of Chemistry, NACCAS.

After lunch, the third invited speaker Dr. P. Sumithraj Premkumar, Assistant Professor of Physics, St.John's College, Palayamkottai was introduced by Mrs. V. Beena, Professor of Physics, NACCAS. The session was about 'Metal Oxide Nanoparticles- A promising materials for the Supercapacitor Applications'. He explained in a very interesting manner about effectiveness of Electrochemical Energy Storage over conventional storage solutions.

It was followed by the valedictory session in which the award ceremony was conducted where Dr. P. Sumithraj Premkumar awarded certificates and mementos to the best paper presentations from each tracks. Also, certificates were provided for other paper presenters and participants.

The conference concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. T.R. Jeena, Assistant Professor of Physics, NACCAS followed by national anthem.

Our department of Chemistry organized a seminar on 27.03.2024 in the Seminar Hall-I. The programme was started at 09.30 a.m. The topic chosen for the International Seminar was “General and Applied Aspects of Chemistry”. The programme was started with the prayer song, sung by Chemistry students. Dr. R. Murali, HOD of Chemistry gave the Welcome Address. Our Secretary Rev. Fr. Dr. M. Eckermens Michael gave the Presidential Address. The Principal Dr. M. Amalanathan gave the felicitation. Then the Book of Abstracts was released on the stage.

The Seminar had two sessions. In the first session, Dr. K. Anoop Krishnan, Scientist of National Centre for Earth Science Studies, TVM, Kerala taught the students well about Geology. He cleared all the doubts asked by the students. He explained about water pollution, parameters and quality of water.

Next, Dr. C. V. Suneesh, Assistant Professor and Head Department of Chemistry, University of Kerala, TVM, Kerala gave more informations about porous polymer materials, their importance, synthetic methods and applications. It was very much interesting.

This was followed by an online presentation by Dr. Jerom Peter, International Research Professors, School Of Chemical Engineering, Yeungram University, Gyeongsan, Republic of Korea. He also explained about wafers in semiconductors, their preparation methods and applications.

In Session- II, Paper Presentation was done by Students of various colleges and NACCAS. The staff and students from various colleges actively participated in the Seminar. Nearly 100 participants were there. At last, Delina & Group, Department of Chemistry gave a cultural acivity to the audience. Then Vote of Thanks was given by Mr. S. Varun, I M.Sc Chemistry.
