The doctors, nurses and psychiatrists and other hospital supporting staffs patiently deal with the patients. The activities of the hospital are handled by dedicated staffs with much care and dedication.

- Learning:

During the orientation visit to Dale view, social work trainees learned about de-addiction and its treatments. We understand the nature of workings of such a center, the dedication of the doctors, the nurses and the other supporting staff etc. Different types of patients are come for treatment – violent, schizophrenic etc.-but the doctors and the staffs attend them patiently and calmly.

- Evaluation:

The Orientation visit to Dale view is worthwhile to the social work trainees. It was a very good experience. The doctors and the nurses handle different situations with polite and they are very much dedicated to the job.
